INFORMATION SHEET: SUBSCRIBING TO A MACROECONOMIC REPORT

Please refer to the information below for what a subscription to a Macroeconomic Report with the Melbourne Institute entails.

Note:
For the legal conditions please refer to the Subscription Agreement.

For details about the Historical Time Series Data please refer to the ‘Historical Time Series Data Information Sheet’.

Reports:
- Reports are PDF’s and may be downloaded, printed and saved.
- Reports are accessed online from the Subscriber Services Area using the username and password provided.
- Only one username and password will be provided for all the subscriptions held by the company, which will be reset after every renewal.
- New reports will be released at 11:00am on the day of issue. The release dates will be advertised on the Subscriber Service Area.
- Subscriptions run on a calendar-year basis from January to December.
- A yearly subscription allows access to reports only in that current year.
- A subscription taken out at any stage during the year will expire on the 31st December of that same year.
- A Subscription Agreement must be completed, signed and returned along with payment before access to a report may be granted.
- The report may be used by the purchasing company only. Please read the Subscription Agreement for the terms and conditions of use.
- There can only be one Subscription Contact for the subscription(s) held by the company. Details for your nominated Subscription Contact are to be completed on the Subscription Agreement.
- Information about subscription renewals and related administration will be communicated via email to the Subscription Contact. This includes being notified via email if there is a problem with the Subscriber Service Area or if corrections are made to a report post release.
